

REBAPTIZER

Meaning: A rebaptizer is a person who performs a baptism again, typically for individuals seeking to reaffirm or renew their spiritual commitment.

1. The rebaptizer stood ready to perform the ceremony for those seeking a fresh start in their spiritual journey.
2. After much contemplation, she decided that a rebaptizer could help her reaffirm her faith in a meaningful way.
3. The community welcomed the rebaptizer with open arms, eager for the renewal of their collective spirit.
4. His role as a rebaptizer was not just ceremonial; it was a profound connection to the beliefs that shaped his life.
5. Many flocked to the rebaptizer, hoping that the act would bring clarity and purpose to their lives once more.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rebaptizer>