

REBLOOM

Meaning: REBLOOM: to produce flowers or blossoms again after a period of dormancy or decline.

1. The flowers in her garden will rebloom in the spring, bringing vibrant colors back to life.
2. After a harsh winter, the trees are beginning to rebloom, signaling the arrival of warmer weather.
3. With proper care, the orchids can rebloom multiple times throughout the year.
4. As soon as the rains return, the desert landscape will rebloom, showcasing its hidden beauty.
5. The gardener was delighted to see the peonies rebloom after she adjusted their sunlight exposure.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rebloom>