

REBORN

Meaning: REBORN: to be born again or to experience a renewal or transformation, often after a significant change or hardship.

1. She felt reborn after leaving her stressful job and pursuing her passion for art.
2. The phoenix in the story symbolizes the idea of being reborn from the ashes of destruction.
3. After overcoming her struggles, she emerged with a renewed sense of purpose, as if she had been reborn.
4. The community came together to celebrate the festival, marking a time of rebirth and renewal for everyone involved.
5. His journey through self-discovery made him feel as if he had been reborn, ready to embrace life anew.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reborn>