

REBUILD

Meaning: Rebuild: to construct or restore something again after it has been damaged or to re-establish something, such as a career or system, that has been lost or disrupted.

1. After the storm, the community came together to rebuild the local playground.
2. She decided to rebuild her career from scratch after the unexpected layoffs.
3. The architect presented a plan to rebuild the historical building while preserving its original charm.
4. They needed to rebuild trust after the scandal that had shaken their organization.
5. In the aftermath of the fire, the family worked tirelessly to rebuild their home and lives.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rebuild>