

REBULLITION

Meaning: Rebullition refers to a renewed uprising or revolt against an established authority or government.

1. The rebels planned a rebullition to overthrow the oppressive regime.
2. In the wake of the economic crisis, a rebullition emerged among the disillusioned citizens.
3. Historians often debate the causes and implications of the last major rebullition in the region.
4. The artist used her paintings to express the fervor of the rebullition stirring in the streets.
5. As tensions rose, the government struggled to suppress the signs of an impending rebullition.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rebullition>