

REBUT

Meaning: To rebut means to argue against or disprove a statement or accusation.

1. She quickly prepared her argument to rebut the accusations made against her.
2. In his speech, he aimed to rebut the common misconceptions about climate change.
3. The lawyer was determined to rebut the evidence presented by the prosecution.
4. During the debate, she skillfully rebutted his claims with well-researched facts.
5. It is important to rebut false information with credible sources to clarify the truth.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rebut>