

REBUTTABLE

Meaning: Rebuttable refers to a claim or presumption that can be challenged or disproven with evidence in a legal context.

1. The defendant's claim was rebuttable, allowing the prosecution to present contrary evidence.
2. In legal contexts, many assumptions are rebuttable, meaning they can be challenged.
3. Her argument was strong, yet still rebuttable by the opposing team during the debate.
4. The rebuttable presumption of innocence is a fundamental principle in criminal law.
5. Researchers must be prepared to address rebuttable findings that challenge their hypotheses.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rebuttable>