

RECALCITRANT

Meaning: Recalcitrant refers to a person who is stubbornly resistant to authority or control.

1. The recalcitrant student refused to follow the teacher's instructions during the class.
2. Despite numerous warnings, the recalcitrant employee continued to disregard company policies.
3. The recalcitrant weeds in the garden proved difficult to eradicate even with powerful herbicides.
4. Her recalcitrant attitude towards authority made it challenging for her to work in a team environment.
5. The recalcitrant puppy ignored all attempts to train him, much to his owner's frustration.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/recalcitrant>