

RECALCITRATION

Meaning: Recalcitration refers to the stubborn resistance or refusal to comply with authority, rules, or new policies.

1. The company faced significant issues due to the recalcitration of its employees towards new policies.
2. Despite numerous attempts to motivate the team, recalcitration remained a persistent challenge in the workplace.
3. The recalcitration of some students towards the new curriculum frustrated the teachers.
4. In the face of recalcitration from the local community, the project was put on hold indefinitely.
5. Efforts to implement changes were met with recalcitration from management, hindering progress.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/recalcitration>