

RECALL

Meaning: Recall refers to the act of bringing a memory or information back to mind or retrieving a product from circulation due to safety concerns.

1. She struggled to recall the details of the conversation they had last week.
2. The company issued a recall for the defective product to ensure customer safety.
3. As I read the old letters, I couldn't help but recall the fond memories of my childhood.
4. The witness was asked to recall specific events from the night of the incident.
5. In a moment of nostalgia, he tried to recall the lyrics to his favorite childhood song.
6. I can't recall where I left my keys this morning.
7. The company issued a recall for the faulty products to ensure customer safety.
8. As I took a walk down memory lane, I began to recall the happiest moments of my childhood.
9. He has a remarkable ability to recall complex information with ease.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/recall>