

RECANTER

Meaning: Recantor: a person who withdraws or retracts a previously held belief, statement, or claim.

1. The recanter's sudden change of heart surprised everyone who had supported his initial claims.
2. After months of pressure from her peers, the scientist decided to become a recanter of her controversial findings.
3. His reputation as a recanter made it difficult for anyone to trust his future statements.
4. The recanter stood before the audience, confessing his earlier mistakes and asking for forgiveness.
5. Despite being labeled a recanter, she maintained that her new beliefs were more aligned with her values.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/recanter>