

RECAPTOR

Meaning: RECAPTOR: A device or mechanism designed to extract or retrieve valuable materials or information from a specific source.

1. The scientist developed a new recaptor that could efficiently extract rare minerals from seawater.
2. In the film, the recaptor played a crucial role in retrieving the lost technology from the enemy base.
3. During the conference, the engineer showcased the recaptor's ability to improve energy efficiency in industrial processes.
4. The team celebrated their successful prototype of the recaptor, which promised to revolutionize waste management.
5. As the project progressed, the recaptor's design was refined to enhance its functionality and durability.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/recaptor>