

RECEIVE

Meaning: To receive means to be given or presented with something, such as an award or an item.

1. I am excited to receive the award for my volunteer work.
2. Please ensure that you receive the package by the end of the week.
3. She was eager to receive feedback on her project from her peers.
4. After a long wait, they finally received the news they had been hoping for.
5. He will receive a scholarship if he maintains his current grades.
6. I was thrilled to receive a letter from my childhood friend.
7. She is eager to receive feedback on her latest project.
8. It's customary to receive a gift when invited to a wedding.
9. They will receive the award for their outstanding contributions to the community.
10. I hope to receive good news about my job application soon.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/receive>