

RECHARTER

Meaning: Recharter: to formally redefine or renew the mission, authority, or structure of an organization or committee.

1. The organization decided to recharter its mission to better align with the current needs of the community.
2. After much deliberation, the board agreed to recharter the committee to address the emerging challenges.
3. To ensure continued funding, the team had to recharter their project proposal with updated objectives.
4. The group held a meeting to discuss the necessary steps to recharter their nonprofit for another five years.
5. In response to changing regulations, they initiated the process to recharter their educational institution.
6. The committee decided to recharter the organization to better reflect its evolving mission.
7. After a thorough review, the board agreed it was time to recharter the nonprofit for improved governance.
8. To adapt to new regulations, they needed to recharter their sailing club before the summer season.
9. The company faced challenges that prompted them to recharter their strategic goals for the upcoming year.
10. In order to expand their services, the group voted to recharter and include additional committees.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/recharter>