

RECIDIVISM

Meaning: Recidivism refers to the tendency of formerly incarcerated individuals to relapse into criminal behavior or re-offend after serving their sentences.

1. Recidivism rates among former inmates can indicate the effectiveness of rehabilitation programs.
2. The government is implementing new strategies to reduce recidivism and support reintegration into society.
3. Research shows that mental health support can significantly lower the likelihood of recidivism.
4. Community involvement plays a crucial role in decreasing recidivism by providing support networks for ex-offenders.
5. Addressing the root causes of criminal behavior is essential for reducing recidivism in any population.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/recidivism>