

RECIPROCATE

Meaning: To respond to a gesture or action with a corresponding gesture or action, often in a mutual or equivalent manner.

1. She hoped that her kindness would be reciprocated in kind.
2. To build a strong relationship, both partners need to reciprocate each other's efforts.
3. After he helped her with her project, she felt compelled to reciprocate by inviting him to dinner.
4. The community's support was reciprocated by the organization through various outreach programs.
5. It's important for friendships to thrive on mutual respect and the willingness to reciprocate gestures of goodwill.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reciprocate>