

RECITATION

Meaning: Recitation refers to the act of reading or reciting a text aloud, often in a formal or performance context.

1. The student delivered a flawless recitation of the poem that captivated the entire audience.
2. During the English class, the teacher encouraged a recitation of classic literature to enrich the students' understanding.
3. Her passionate recitation of the soliloquy left everyone in the theater spellbound.
4. They practiced their recitation for weeks, determined to impress their teachers at the competition.
5. The annual school event featured a recitation contest, showcasing the talents of students from all grades.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/recitation>