

RECITE

Meaning: To recite means to repeat aloud from memory a piece of text, such as a poem or a speech, typically in front of an audience.

1. She was asked to recite her favorite poem at the school assembly.
2. During the audition, he had to recite a monologue from a classic play.
3. The teacher encouraged the students to recite the multiplication tables aloud.
4. As part of the competition, participants must recite a passage from memory.
5. He can recite the entire speech verbatim, having memorized it for years.
6. She was anxious to recite her poem at the school assembly.
7. During the audition, he had to recite several monologues from classic plays.
8. The teacher asked the students to recite the multiplication tables from memory.
9. At the memorial service, family members took turns to recite their favorite memories of her.
10. He could recite entire passages from his favorite novels without missing a word.
11. She was asked to recite a poem at the school assembly.
12. He struggled to recite the lines from memory during the audition.
13. The teacher encouraged the students to recite their favorite quotes.
14. During the memorial service, volunteers gathered to recite the names of the fallen.
15. At the competition, each participant had to recite a passage from a classic novel.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/recite>