

RECKLING

Meaning: Reckling (noun): A playful or mischievous young person, often bringing joy and liveliness to their surroundings.

1. The young child was often seen as a reckling, full of mischief and laughter.
2. In the quiet village, the reckling spirit of the locals brought joy to the dreary winter days.
3. Despite being a reckling, his heart was as big as his imagination, always dreaming of grand adventures.
4. The old tales spoke of a reckling who could outsmart even the wisest of elders.
5. With a reckling wandering through the garden, the evening felt alive with possibility and wonder.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reckling>