

RECKON

Meaning: Reckon: to think or suppose something; to estimate or consider.

1. I reckon it will take us about three hours to finish the project.
2. Do you reckon she will accept the job offer?
3. He likes to reckon the odds before making any big decisions.
4. I reckon we should leave early to avoid the traffic.
5. She always reckons her chances before entering any competition.
6. When I reckon the costs, it seems more economical to stay at home.
7. She didn't reckon on the weather changing so suddenly.
8. Do you reckon he'll be able to finish the project on time?
9. I reckon this restaurant has the best pizza in town.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reckon>