

RECLAIMABLE

Meaning: RECLAIMABLE: capable of being recovered or retrieved, especially in the context of funds or materials.

1. The funds from the canceled project are fully reclaimable under the terms of our contract.
2. Many items in the recycling program are reclaimable, which helps reduce waste in landfills.
3. Homeowners were pleased to learn that their energy-efficient upgrades were reclaimable through tax credits.
4. The reclaimable resources in the area could significantly boost the local economy.
5. To promote sustainability, the company emphasized the importance of using reclaimable materials in production.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reclaimable>