

RECLASP

Meaning: Reclasp (verb): to fasten or secure something again, particularly a piece of jewelry like a necklace or bracelet.

1. She decided to reclip the necklace around her neck after it had slipped off during the party.
2. As he reached for the clasp, he realized he needed to reclip the bracelet to ensure it wouldn't fall off.
3. The technician had to reclip the wires carefully to avoid any damage to the delicate equipment.
4. After adjusting the fit, she resealed her handbag to secure her belongings.
5. He paused to reclip his jacket before heading out into the chilly evening air.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reclasp>