

RECLINE

Meaning: To recline means to lean or lie back in a relaxed position.

1. She decided to recline on the sofa and enjoy her favorite book.
2. After a long day at work, he liked to recline in his chair and listen to music.
3. The adjustable seat allows passengers to recline for added comfort during the flight.
4. He asked her to recline her seat so they could have a more relaxed conversation.
5. In the evening, she often reclines by the window, watching the sunset paint the sky.
6. After a long day at work, I like to recline on my favorite couch and unwind.
7. The chair has a lever that allows you to recline it to a comfortable angle for reading.
8. She decided to recline under the shade of a tree and enjoy the gentle breeze.
9. As the plane took off, he settled back in his seat to recline and relax for the flight.
10. The massage therapist urged her to recline so she could apply the necessary pressure.
11. The doctor advised him to recline during his recovery to ease the pressure on his back.
12. As the sun set, they chose to recline on the beach and watch the waves.
13. He adjusted the chair to recline further back for a more comfortable position.
14. After a long day, all she wanted to do was recline and relax in her armchair.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/recline>