

RECLUSE

Meaning: Recluse: a person who lives a solitary life and tends to avoid others, often seeking privacy and isolation.

1. The author became a recluse after achieving fame, retreating from the public eye to focus on his writing.
2. Living as a recluse in the mountains, she found peace in solitude and nature.
3. Despite his reputation as a recluse, he surprised everyone by attending the community event.
4. The recluse had a vast collection of books, a testament to his years spent in isolation.
5. Neighbors often speculated about the mysterious recluse who rarely left his house.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/recluse>