

RECLUSION

Meaning: Reclusion is the state of being withdrawn from social contact or living in seclusion.

1. Reclusion often appeals to those seeking solitude away from the chaos of everyday life.
2. After years of reclusion, she finally felt ready to reconnect with the outside world.
3. The artist's reclusion allowed her to focus deeply on her work without distractions.
4. During his reclusion in the mountains, he discovered a profound sense of inner peace.
5. Reclusion can sometimes lead to loneliness, but for some, it is a cherished choice.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reclusion>