

RECLUSIVE

Meaning: Reclusive: preferring to live in solitude and avoiding social interaction or the company of others.

1. The reclusive author spent years living in a remote cabin, far from the distractions of modern life.
2. Despite her reclusive nature, she often left notes for her neighbors, expressing her gratitude for their kindness.
3. Many admired the reclusive artist, whose vibrant paintings told stories of a world he rarely engaged with.
4. His reclusive tendencies made it difficult for friends to reach out, but those who knew him cherished their time together.
5. The reclusive billionaire shunned the public eye, preferring to invest in charitable causes from behind the scenes.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reclusive>