

RECOGNIZABILITY

Meaning: Recognizability refers to the quality of being easily identified or distinguished, often due to distinctive features or characteristics.

1. The recognizability of the brand has significantly increased due to its innovative marketing strategies.
2. Her artwork is known for its unique style and high recognizability among art enthusiasts.
3. In today's digital age, the recognizability of a company's logo can make or break its success.
4. The team conducted surveys to measure the recognizability of various public figures in the community.
5. Improving the recognizability of the product is essential for attracting new customers in a competitive market.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/recognizability>