

RECOGNIZATION

Meaning: Recognition refers to the process of identifying and acknowledging something, particularly in the context of understanding or appreciating its significance or value.

1. The process of recognition is crucial in developing effective marketing strategies.
2. Her recognition of the artwork allowed her to appreciate the nuances of the artist's technique.
3. In psychology, recognition plays a key role in memory retrieval and cognitive function.
4. The new software enhances the recognition of patterns in large data sets.
5. His recognition of the issue led to timely intervention and a positive outcome.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/recognition>