

RECOMMIT

Meaning: Recommit: to pledge or dedicate oneself again to a goal, plan, or commitment.

1. After reflecting on our goals, we decided to recommit to our long-term vision.
2. The team agreed to recommit to the project's timeline in order to meet the upcoming deadline.
3. In therapy, she realized it was time to recommit to her personal growth and well-being.
4. As the community faced challenges, residents were inspired to recommit to volunteering and supporting each other.
5. He felt it was necessary to recommit to his fitness routine after a few months of neglect.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/recommit>