

RECOMPENSER

Meaning: To recompense means to compensate or reward someone for their efforts, services, or losses.

1. The organization decided to recompense the volunteers for their hard work during the event.
2. After the delay in shipment, the company offered to recompense customers with discounts on future purchases.
3. She felt it was only fair to recompense him for the time he spent helping her move.
4. The foundation aims to recompense the families affected by the natural disaster with financial aid.
5. In an effort to recompense his loyal employees, the CEO announced a bonus program at the annual meeting.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/recompenser>