

RECONCENTRATE

Meaning: To reconcentrate means to redirect or refocus one's efforts or attention towards a specific task or area of interest.

1. After the initial analysis, the team decided to reconcentrate their efforts on the most promising areas of research.
2. In order to overcome distractions, she took a moment to reconcentrate and refocus on her work.
3. The manager suggested that the staff reconcentrate their resources to improve overall efficiency.
4. He had to reconcentrate his thoughts before delivering the important presentation.
5. Following the setback, the organization chose to reconcentrate its strategy for maximum impact.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reconcentrate>