

RECONCILEMENT

Meaning: Reconciliation is the act of restoring harmony or agreement between conflicting parties.

1. The process of reconciliation can often lead to a deeper understanding between conflicting parties.
2. After much discussion, they found a way to reach a reconciliation that satisfied both sides.
3. Reconciliation is essential in healing relationships that have been strained by misunderstandings.
4. The team's success hinged on their ability to achieve reconciliation after a heated disagreement.
5. Her heartfelt apology was a crucial step toward the reconciliation they both desperately needed.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reconciliation>