

RECONFIRM

Meaning: To reconfirm means to verify or affirm again, especially in relation to attendance or arrangements.

1. Please reconfirm your attendance at the meeting to ensure everyone is on the same page.
2. Before finalizing the reservation, I need to reconfirm the date and time with the venue.
3. It is crucial to reconfirm the details of the project with the team to avoid any misunderstandings.
4. The travel agent called to reconfirm our flight details before our departure next week.
5. She sent an email to reconfirm the schedule for the upcoming conference call.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reconfirm>