

RECONFORT

Meaning: Recomfort (noun): a source of consolation or relief that provides emotional support during challenging times.

1. The warm embrace of her friend served as a comforting reconfort during her difficult times.
2. After a long day at work, he found reconfort in the pages of his favorite book.
3. The soothing music provided a much-needed reconfort amid the chaos of the city.
4. A cup of hot tea is often my favorite reconfort after a stressful week.
5. She sought reconfort in nature, taking long walks in the serene park nearby.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/recomfort>