

RECONSIDER

Meaning: Reconsider means to think about or evaluate something again, especially in light of new information or perspectives.

1. I think we should reconsider the budget allocation for the upcoming project.
2. After hearing everyone's feedback, she decided to reconsider her initial decision.
3. It's important to reconsider your priorities if you're feeling overwhelmed.
4. The committee agreed to reconsider the proposal after gathering more information.
5. He urged his friends to reconsider their travel plans in light of the new safety guidelines.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reconsider>