

RECONSIDERATION

Meaning: Reconsideration is the act of reviewing or reassessing a decision or proposal in light of new information or circumstances.

1. The committee voted for a reconsideration of the proposed budget after new data emerged.
2. Her request for reconsideration of the decision was met with skepticism by the board members.
3. After much debate, the team agreed to a reconsideration of their strategy to improve results.
4. He felt that a reconsideration of her earlier position might lead to a more favorable outcome.
5. The judge allowed for a reconsideration of the case after new evidence was presented.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reconsideration>