

RECONSOLIDATION

Meaning: Reconsolidation refers to the process of reorganizing and reassembling resources or initiatives to enhance efficiency and effectiveness.

1. The reorganization of the company led to a successful reconsolidation of its resources.
2. After several years of growth, the team focused on the reconsolidation of their strategic initiatives.
3. The reconsolidation of the data allowed for better analysis and improved decision-making.
4. Through reconsolidation, the organization aimed to strengthen its position in the competitive market.
5. The scientists emphasized the importance of reconsolidation in maintaining the integrity of their findings.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reconsolidation>