

RECONSTRUCT

Meaning: RECONSTRUCT: to build or form again something that has been damaged, destroyed, or broken down.

1. The archaeologists worked tirelessly to reconstruct the ancient ruins from the fragmented stones they unearthed.
2. After the fire, the community came together to reconstruct the beloved library that had been lost.
3. She used old photographs to reconstruct the layout of her grandmother's house as a surprise for her family.
4. The scientist aimed to reconstruct the DNA sequence to better understand the genetic mutation.
5. In therapy, he learned how to reconstruct his memories in a way that made them less painful to revisit.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reconstruct>