

RECONSTRUCTIVE

Meaning: Reconstructive refers to the process of restoring or reshaping something, often in a way that aims to improve its appearance or function after damage or alteration.

1. The surgeon specialized in reconstructive procedures to help restore the patients' appearances after trauma.
2. Reconstructive art involves reimagining and reshaping elements to create something entirely new.
3. After severe injuries, many individuals seek reconstructive surgery to regain their confidence and functionality.
4. The team focused on reconstructive techniques that would not only heal but also enhance the natural beauty of the individual.
5. Reconstructive efforts in the affected community aimed to rebuild homes and restore lives after the disaster.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reconstructive>