

RECOVER

Meaning: To regain or restore something lost, such as health or performance, after a setback or difficulty.

1. After a long illness, she was determined to recover her strength through physical therapy.
2. The team worked hard to recover from their early mistakes and finished the game with a strong performance.
3. He managed to recover the missing files from his computer after a helpful technician restored the system.
4. The economy is expected to recover slowly over the next few years as businesses adjust to the new market conditions.
5. With time and support, many people can recover from emotional trauma and lead fulfilling lives again.
6. After months of physical therapy, she was finally able to recover her strength and return to the gym.
7. The economy is expected to recover slowly as businesses adapt to the new market conditions.
8. He worked hard to recover the lost files from his damaged computer.
9. With the right support, many people can recover from their emotional challenges and lead fulfilling lives.
10. The team managed to recover from a two-goal deficit and win the match in the final minutes.
11. She worked hard to recover from her injury and return to the sport she loved.
12. After months of therapy, he was finally able to recover his speech following the stroke.
13. The team managed to recover possession of the ball just before the final whistle.
14. It took a while for the economy to recover after the financial crisis.
15. With patience and support, she was able to recover her confidence and self-esteem.
16. She worked hard to recover her strength after the injury.
17. The company hopes to recover lost profits by the end of the year.

18. It took him several months to fully recover from the emotional trauma.
19. The team managed to recover the stolen artifacts and return them to the museum.
20. After a long night of studying, I needed a day to recover and recharge.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/recover>