

RECREMENT

Meaning: Recrement refers to waste materials or byproducts produced during a biological or chemical process.

1. The scientist observed the recrement produced during the chemical reaction with great interest.
2. In ancient texts, the term recrement referred to the waste materials expelled by living organisms.
3. Understanding the process of recrement is crucial for improving waste management in urban environments.
4. The biologist explained how the recrement from certain species can enrich the soil and promote plant growth.
5. Recrement plays a significant role in nutrient cycling within ecosystems, aiding in the sustainability of various habitats.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/recrement>