

RECTIFIABLE

Meaning: Rectifiable means capable of being corrected or set right.

1. The errors in the report are minor and undoubtedly rectifiable.
2. She believed that the misunderstandings in their relationship were rectifiable with open communication.
3. The technician assured us that the issue with the machine was rectifiable with a simple adjustment.
4. In most cases, the problems we face are rectifiable if we approach them with patience and creativity.
5. The committee concluded that the financial discrepancies were rectifiable and set a timeline for corrections.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rectifiable>