

RECTIFICATION

Meaning: Rectification is the act of correcting or amending an error or mistake in a document or account.

1. The company issued a formal rectification of the billing errors identified by customers.
2. After the audit, the accountant prepared a rectification to amend the financial statements.
3. Her rectification of the misunderstanding helped to clear the tension in the meeting.
4. The engineer proposed a rectification plan to address the design flaws in the project.
5. Rectification of past mistakes is essential for building a more trustworthy relationship.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rectification>