

RECTINERVED

Meaning: Rectinerved refers to leaves that have a pattern of straight, parallel veins.

1. The botanist was fascinated by the rectinerved leaves of the rare tropical plant.
2. In her research, she noted that rectinerved patterns can indicate specific evolutionary adaptations.
3. Rectinerved structures often contribute to the overall stability of the plant's framework.
4. The artist chose to depict the rectinerved foliage to emphasize the intricate details of nature.
5. Understanding rectinerved characteristics can aid in the classification of various plant species.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rectinerved>