

RECTOR

Meaning: Rector: (noun) The head or chief official of a university or educational institution, responsible for its administration and governance.

1. The rector of the university announced a new scholarship program for incoming students.
2. During the graduation ceremony, the rector delivered an inspiring speech about the importance of education.
3. As the head of the institution, the rector is responsible for overseeing all academic affairs.
4. The rector met with faculty members to discuss the upcoming changes in the curriculum.
5. In many universities, the rector plays a crucial role in representing the institution to the public.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rector>