

RECOLE

Meaning: Recule: to draw back or retreat in fear or response to a threatening situation.

1. The sudden noise made him recule in fear, unsure of what was lurking in the shadows.
2. As the wave approached, she had no choice but to recule to avoid being drenched.
3. In the face of criticism, he began to recule, reconsidering his previous stance on the issue.
4. The unexpected turn of events caused the crowd to recule in disbelief and confusion.
5. Feeling overwhelmed by the intense situation, she instinctively chose to recule from the confrontation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/recule>