

RECURVOUS

Meaning: Recurvous refers to a shape or structure that is curved or bent backward, often creating a visually striking effect.

1. The recurvous petals of the orchid created a stunning visual effect in the botanical garden.
2. In her latest painting, the artist incorporated recurvous shapes that seemed to draw the viewer's eye inward.
3. The recurvous leaves of the plant adapted beautifully to the landscape, adding an elegant twist to their surroundings.
4. During the hike, we encountered several recurvous formations in the rock faces that intrigued the geologists in our group.
5. The recurvous design of the furniture gave the room a unique and modern aesthetic, breaking away from traditional lines.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/recurvous>