

RED-HOT

Meaning: Red-hot: extremely hot or glowing with heat; also, characterized by intense passion or anger.

1. The red-hot coals glowed brightly in the night, inviting everyone to gather around the fire.
2. After hours of negotiation, the tension between the two parties became red-hot, sparking heated arguments.
3. She wore a red-hot dress that turned heads as she walked into the room, exuding confidence and style.
4. The news of the team's victory ignited a red-hot excitement among the fans, filling the streets with celebration.
5. His red-hot temper often got him into trouble, but he was quick to apologize once he cooled down.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/red-hot>