

RED-TAILED

Meaning: Red-tailed refers to having a tail that is predominantly red in color, often used to describe certain species of birds, like the red-tailed hawk, or to describe leaves that exhibit a red hue, particularly in autumn.

1. The red-tailed hawk soared gracefully above the tree line, scanning the ground for its next meal.
2. In the autumn, the red-tailed leaves created a stunning tapestry across the forest floor.
3. The red-tailed fox is known for its adaptability in various habitats, from woodlands to urban areas.
4. During our hike, we spotted a pair of red-tailed kites nesting high in the cliffs.
5. The vibrant red-tailed coloration of the bird makes it easily recognizable to avid birdwatchers.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/red-tailed>