

REDACTION

Meaning: Redaction is the process of editing or censoring text to remove sensitive or confidential information before publication or distribution.

1. The redaction of sensitive information is crucial in protecting individual privacy.
2. After careful redaction, the report was deemed safe for public release.
3. She was frustrated by the extensive redaction that obscured important details in the document.
4. The lawyer emphasized the importance of redaction in maintaining client confidentiality.
5. Despite the redaction, some details were still discernible to the keen eye.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/redaction>